Spruce Meadows Skyliner

Special congratulations to the management team of Spruce Meadows who successfully launched the initial Skyliner tournament this past week.

The tournament was a tremendous success with over 500 junior and amateur riders from all over the America's competing in a World championship Format event in divisions from the Pony Jumpers all the way up to the 1.40m Jumpers.

Riders competed in each a Speed event, Nations Cup event, a Grand Prix event, and finally, the top four in each division advancing to compete in a final four where the riders exchanged horses to determine an ultimate winner.

The excitement was great in this the inaugural year of what will sure to be a must attend tournament in years to come for all junior and amateur riders.

Novice and Young Rider Tournaments

ATTENTION ALL RIDERS!

Rocky Mountain Show Jumping and WillowGrove Stable are pleased at this time to announce that they have teamed up their efforts and will be launching an exciting new Novice Rider Circuit for the Province of Alberta.

With the tremendous growth in the sport of show jumping in the past few years, the trio of John and Tani Anderson along with Trish Mrakawa plan to host numerous Novice Rider tournaments throughout the year at the beautiful and prestigious Anderson Ranch facility.

There are exciting new plans for growth at Anderson Ranch, and we plan to be able to share this venue with all levels of the sport from the beginners, all the way to the experienced international riders.

We will be launching the circuit very shortly, and plan to keep everyone informed of the developments as they become available.

To ensure that you receive all of the information about this exciting new circuit, please take the time to go to the Rocky Mountain Show Jumping website and click on the "BECOME A MEMBER" button to add yourself to the mailing list. (www.rmshowjumping.com)

Come Visit Our Site!

If you are one of the first fifteen to sign up to our mailing list, and compete at our first tournament, (date to be announced) you will receive your entries to the tournament ABSOLUTELY FREE!

We are very excited about the soon to be launched series, and feel that it will contribute greatly to the rapid growth in the sport and help fulfill the need for the early development of future international caliber show jumpers.
