

For Release 9 a.m. MST
November 28, 2009

Rocky Mountain Show Jumping to host
2010 C.E.T. Medal Prairie Regional Finals

To be hosted at the 2010 RMSJ Fall Classic

CALGARY — November 28, 2009 — The management of Rocky Mountain Show Jumping is pleased at this time to announce that the 2010 C.E.T. Medal Prairie Regional Finals will be held on September 15 - 19, 2010. Receiving confirmation from Equine Canada and the CET Medal committee this past Friday, RMSJ is glad to pass on this information to all Prairie Region contenders.

To be hosted at Anderson Ranch during the RMSJ Fall Classic, the prestigious C.E.T. Medal Prairie Regional Finals will qualify four competitors to travel to the National Finals at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto.

Look for more details shortly on the Rocky Mountain Show Jumping Website, along with a new series of Equitation and Medal competitions to be introduced in the 2010 competition year.

These medal competitions are being introduced, all with the purpose of improving the sport, as well as developing its young and coming riders.

For more information, press only:

(Caroline Jones or Jacqueline Patmore), (403 668-7844), (rocky@rmshowjumping.com)

For more information on RMSJ:

<http://www.rmshowjumping.com>